Învățați inteligent
Învățați gramatica

Am numit ciclul Metoda Lidia Vianu pentru câteva motive care îl deosebesc de alte manuale contemporane: are o abordare contrastivă [adică explică românului cum diferă limba engleză de limba lui maternă], și își bazează predarea pe narațiune și personaje hazlii. Ceea ce pare neobișnuit, absurd, în propozițiile mele, facilitează procesul de memorare a situației – lucru foarte important și rar luat în considerație.

Volumele acestea nu sunt simple manuale de predare, ci de exersare și verificare. Se poate lucra după ele cu profesor, sau numai cu cheia, individual. Ele au scopul de a integra gramatica engleză în gândirea unui român, folosind nu doar exersarea traducerii, ci și conversația/vorbirea. Tocmai de aceea toate propozițiile au un miez narativ, pentru ca profesorul să poată pune întrebări, să discute datele povestirii, să ceară elevilor/studenților să scrie alt final, altă poveste, cu aceleași timpuri, substantive, adjective, etc.

Am evitat voită explicațiile teoretice directe. Ele apar în scheme practice, și sunt aplicate în toate cele șapte volume. Am adăugat sistematic gramaticii liste de cuvinte, pentru a îmbogăți vocabularul cursantului. Aceste cuvinte se repetă de câteva ori în întregul manual.

Am ales să pun cheia în paralel cu propoziția de tradus pentru că, dintr-o foarte lungă experiență, știu două lucruri. În primul rând, cursantul contemporan nu mai are răbdare să caute cuvintele noi, așa că îl ajut să le memoreze fără să se întrerupă pentru a căuta în dicționar. În al doilea rând, e anevoios să caute traducerea corectă la sfârșitul cărții, și este important să corecteze fiecare propoziție de îndată ce a fost tradusă, pentru ca metoda să aibă efect. O situație gramaticală este cel mai adesea tratată de mine în mai multe propoziții una după alta.

Toate cele șapte volume au aerul unui caiet dictando vechi. Am păstrat liniile ce despart paragrafele, ca să dau cărții statutul ei de metodă retro, dar și ca să ne concentrăm pe conținut. TOTAL LIPSITE DE IMAGINI, în mod voită, ele completează cultul jocului din metoda comunicativă cu învățarea prin înțelegere și gândire.

Volumele 1, 2. Engleza de la 7 la 77 de ani, în două părți. Întâmplări cu timpuri. Traducere cu cheie.

Volumele 1 și 2 [inedite] exersează timpurile verbale, în propoziții sau contexte mai ample. Fiecare timp are secțiunea lui. Timpurile sunt plasate în mai multe povestioare cu haz, cu scopul de a ajuta memorarea folosirii timpului respectiv, dar și de a educa engleza vorbită. Elevii trebuie puși să repovestească, să schimbe elementele narațiunii, dar să nu se abată de la timpul studiat.

Volumul 3. Ora de engleză. Traduceri și povestiri. Cu cheie.

Volumul 3 [mult schimbat, după publicările anterioare din anii 1990], este dedicat folosirii amestecate a timpurilor [care în primele două volume sunt în cea mai mare parte separate pe secțiuni].

Volumul 4. Admiterea la Engleză. Traducere gramaticală. Cu cheie.

Volumul 4 este fosta Engleză cu Cheie, foarte mult schimbată. Volumul pregătește pe oricine are de dat un examen la limba engleză [admitere la liceu, universitate, teste de toate felurile]. Este o trecere în revistă a problemelor gramaticale care trebuie predate în paralel cu româna, pentru ca toți cursanții să înțeleagă logic în ce fel diferă limba engleză de limba română. Textele literare din ultimul capitol au ca scop să atragă tuturor atenția că niciodată nu traducem cuvânt cu cuvânt, ci traducem sensul.

Acest volum a format multe generații de profesori. Deși scris prin anii 1980, el nu a putut apărea decât după 1990, când distribuția prin intermediul librăriilor încă mai funcționa în toată țara. Texte cu haz și narațiune [foarte importantă este narațiunea pentru a educa logica englezei vorbite], nu erau pe piață, așa că ani de zile s-a stat la coadă la librărie pentru carte, și mulți dintre cei care aveau să ajungă profesori de engleză au început cu acel manual. Cred că a fost unicul bestseller pe care l-am scris.

Volumul 5. Subiecte date la Admitere 1974-1990. Cu cheie.

Volumul 5 cuprinde subiectele date la examenul de admitere la Facultatea de Engleză din București sub comunism, când competiția ajungea și la 10 candidați pe loc. Le-am păstrat și a venit vremea lor: sunt texte cu dificultăți gramaticale ținute pe diferențele dintre engleză și română. Aceste texte arată și ele că inteligent este să traduci sensul, nu cuvântul.

Volumul 6. Student la Engleză. Traducere gramaticală. Cu cheie.

Volumul 6 [republicat într-o formă modificată aproape total, reasezată în pagină și enorm adăugită, ca și toate celelalte volume retipărite] este o combinație de traducere și „multiple choice”, pe trei coloane]. Ea a apărut pe hârtie tot în anii 1990, într-o formă care diferă mult de volumul de față. Acest volum se adresează studenților avansați, și acoperă la un nivel avansat gramatica și listele de cuvinte, adăugând o dificultate în plus: alegerea soluției corecte din trei variante, dintre care, intenționat, două seamănă mai bine cu româna, dar nu se pot folosi în engleză.

Volumul 7. Examen la Gramatica engleză. Traducere cu cheie.

Volumul 7 [inedit] cuprinde texte narrative mai scurte ori mai lungi, cu probleme complicate de gramatică, și se adresează studenților la engleză, profesorilor de engleză, cursanților care au deja o bază gramaticală și lexicală solidă. Scopul lui este să arate studentului cum să ocolească multe capcane ale limbii engleze.

Toate cele șapte volume se adresează cursanților de toate vârstele, celor care știu românește și au măcar cunoștințe minime de limba engleză.

Acest gen de manual cu aspect de caiet și total lipsit de poze, care este, însă, plin de haz și întâmplări, e oarecum unic pentru moment. Eu nu descopăr America: nu fac decât să merg pe linia profesorilor mei, și mai ales a Profesorului Levițchi. Propun aici un ciclu de volume sobre, pentru elevi care știu mai mult decât să se uite la o poză: un manual care să se înscrie în tradiția anglisticii românești.

14.9. The Dwarf

Vocabulary and grammar revision

Piticul înainta cu pași mari și înfipti pe străzile pustii, încercând pe cât putea să-și aducă aminte de nenorocirile lui din copilărie. Tatăl lui vitreg, un om cârn, hoinărea ore în șir noapte de noapte, aducând după el acasă bețivi pe care-i găsea dormind pe bănci prin parc. Intrau cu toții clătinându-se pe picioare în odaia piticului, ca să se uite la el.

The dwarf was striding down the deserted streets, trying to remember as much as he could of his childhood misfortunes. His snub-nosed stepfather [would, will, did] stroll for hours every night, bringing home drunkards whom he would find sleeping on benches [in, from, of] the park. They would reel into the dwarf's room, to take a look at him.

His snub-nosed stepfather would stroll for hours every night, bringing home drunkards whom he would find sleeping on benches in the park. They would reel into the dwarf's room, to take a look at him.

– E imposibil să fie copilul tău, exclama câte unul.
– Ba da, este al meu, sigur că-i al meu, replica tatăl vitreg. L-am adoptat.
– Dar tatăl lui adevărat a fost precis tot un pitic, insista cel dintâi.
– Nu-i neapărat nevoie să fie așa, medita tatăl vitreg.

“He [may not, will not, can't] be your child!”, one of them would ejaculate.
“Oh, yes, he is mine all right”, the stepfather would retort. “I have adopted him.”
“But his real father [need, must, needs] have been a dwarf as well,” the former would insist.

Se întâmpla așa în fiecare noapte. Când ieșeau în șir indian din odaie cu un rânj pe mutrele lor lătărețe, piticul se scula din pat, și se apuca să se îmbrace. Își pune hainele lui ponosite de stambă, apoi, pe deasupra hainele cele bune, apoi un vindiac, fular, mănuși groase cu un deget și pantofi de lac. Purta de obicei pantaloni cu manșete, cu bretele și curea cu cataramă, o cămașă fără mâneci, în dungi, apretată, papion, un maiou roșu cu mâneci lungi, și manșon, dar, când era agitat, înșfăca și trăgea pe el oricare haine îi picau în mână

It happened every night. When they filed out of the room with a grin on their broad faces, the dwarf would get out of bed, and would start dressing. He would put on his shabby calico clothes, then his Sunday best on top of those, then a wind-jacket, a muffler, mittens, and patent leather shoes. Usually he [wore, was wearing, has been wearing] turn-up trousers with braces and a buckled belt, a starched, sleeveless, striped shirt, a bow tie, a long-sleeved red undershirt, and a muff, but, when he was excited, he would grab and put on whatever clothes he could [lie, laid, lay] hands on.

îmbrăcat ca o fată. A intrat pe furiș în odaia surorii lui pistruiate, și a găsit acolo ciorapi indeșirabili, o cămașă de noapte, un sarafan importat din Elveția și o fustă plisată, decolorată. Dacă sora lui n-ar fi fost așa de înaltă și obeză, le-ar fi îmbrăcat, și ar fi rupt-o la fugă afară din cameră, închipuindu-și că va putea să străbată tot orașul cu repeziciune în halul în care era, fără să pățească nimic. Un polițist băgăcios poate că l-ar fi reperat pe pitic în vreme ce acesta se strecura lipit de zidurile vreunei case, l-ar fi pălmuit și i-ar fi spus:

He stole into his freckled sister's room, and found there ladder-proof stockings, a nightgown, a jumper dress imported from Switzerland, and a faded pleated skirt. If his sister [would not have been, had not been, would not be] so tall and obese, he would have put them on, and he would have run out of the room, imagining he [would be, will be, were] able to scour the town like that, and get away with it. A nosey policeman might have spotted the dwarf while he [is, was, has been] edging his way along the walls, would have slapped him in the face and said:

Dar acest lucru nu s-a întâmplat. Pur și simplu n-a fost să fie. Polițiștii nici nu se sinchiseau de pitic. Piticul se apucase de jefuit bănci, pentru ca ei să-l bage în seamă, dar nu izbutise decât să ajungă milionar.

Începu o viață nouă, întorcând spatele rudelor apropiate. Succesul îi sucise capul. Până să împlinească treizeci de ani, își vârâse-n cap să ajungă Președintele insulei. Dădu anunțuri în ziare că este în căutare de ajutoare, și angajă astfel tot felul de foști pușcăriași de pe drumuri: indivizi cu frunți teșite, urcioare, coșuri, gropițe în obraji, ori ochi bulbucați.

He turned over a new leaf, turning his back on his next of kin. Success had turned his head. By the time he turned thirty, he had got it into his head to become President of the island. He advertised in the newspapers, saying he was looking for help, and thus hired all sorts of homeless ex-convicts: fellows with receding foreheads, with eyesores, pimples, dimples or bulging eyes.

Puse croitorul să întoarcă pe dos hainele acelor indivizi, ca să nu fie recunoscuți de funcționarii băncilor pe care le jefuiseră. Însăpăimântați de planurile piticului, în noaptea hotărâtoare unii dintre ei o șterseră. Cei rămași primiră instrucțiuni

He had his tailor [to turn, better turn, turn] those fellows' coats inside out, lest they [should, would, could] be recognized by the clerks of the banks they had robbed. Frightened by the dwarf's plans, [in, on, at] the decisive night, some

Este ciudat că a reușit planul piticului într-o țară unde toți câștigă banii cinstiți, și nu este nimeni laș. Cert este că, odată ce piticul ajunse președintele insulei, nimeni nu se mai gândi să se răfuiască cu el. De mult tânjeau după o schimbare.

It is strange that the dwarf's plan [should, would, might] have worked out in a country where everybody turns an honest penny, and nobody is a turn-coat. Fact is that, once the dwarf became President of the island, nobody even thought of getting even with him. They had long longed for a change.

Piticul avea un asociat credincios, un cocoșat cu gușă, pe care-l iubea de parcă i-ar fi fost frate bun. Cocoșatul circula cam mult, făcea drumuri misterioase și, când se întorcea, arăta de parcă ar fi fost dat pe mâna poliției și eliberat de nenumărate

13.

Adesea îi spunea:

—Măcar dacă ai face fiecare lucru la vremea lui! Măcar dacă n-ai lăsa să se răspândească vestea despre nenorocirile tale! Măcar dacă n-ai face veșnic după capul tău! Aș prefera să nu fi ajuns nicio-dată asociatul meu, pentru că mă scoate din minți să alerg după tine prin tot orașul. Dacă dau ei peste tine înaintea mea!

He would often tell him:

“If only you [will do, did, were doing] everything in its turn! If only you didn’t let the news of your misfortunes get about! If only you did not always get your own way! I would rather you [had, have, did] never become my partner, because hunting for you all over the town simply gets on my nerves. Suppose they found you before I [do, am doing, did]!”

14.

Cocoșatul se apropia de cincizeci de ani, și era peste măsură de încăpățânat. Lăsase însărcinată o muiere cu mână grea, iar aceasta îl ținea din scurt.

—Nu era nevoie să te însori cu ea, îl muștră piticul, atunci când află. Este precis genul de femeie care își trosnește mereu degetele, și stă de vorbă cu mâinile în șolduri. Ai pornit în viață cu stângul, dar, la urma urmei, ce-mi pasă mie?

“You needn’t have married [with her, to her, her]”, the dwarf scolded him when he found out. “She must be the kind of woman who [is always cracking, always cracks, was always cracking] her fingers, and talks to you with arms akimbo. You have got off in life on the wrong foot, but, after all, I [could, might, need] not care less.”

Cocoșatul îi reproșă:

—Știu că, după tine, putem și să murim de foame.

—N-aveai decât să mă inviți la cununie, dacă voiai să-mi pese.

—N-a fost nicio cununie, protestă cocoșatul, mângâind cu pumnul mâna piticului. Era prost dispusă, așa că ne-am lipsit de ceremonie.

The hunchback reproached him:

“I know we can starve, for all you care.”

“You [might, may, can] have invited me to the wedding if you had wanted me to care.”

17.

— Poate aș fi putut s-o împiedic, dacă mă chemai, continuă piticul împungând cu degetul mare pieptul cocoșatului.

“I might have been able to prevent it, if you had called me,” the dwarf went on, sticking his thumb into the hunchback’s [breast, chest, bosom].

18.

În cele din urmă, piticul izbuti să se stăpânească, deși era nefericit că prietenul lui la cataramă o pășise, cel puțin în ceea ce privește însurătoarea. Știind că se poate vâri pe sub pielea oricui, spera că o s-o silească pe nevasta cocoșatului să se poarte cum trebuie. Era, de fapt, sigur că va fi în stare să se cațere pe masă, s-o tragă de butonieră, și să-i poruncească:

— Valea!

Finally, the dwarf got himself in hand, although he was unhappy because his [breast, chest, bosom] friend had got into trouble, at least [as, so, that] far as his marriage was concerned. Knowing that he could get on the soft side of anyone, he hoped he would force the hunchback’s wife to behave herself. 20.

Femeia a vrut chiar să-i facă de petrecanie. Însă piticul și cocoșatul au scăpat basma curată: au rămas burlaci, trăind în tihnă și lux, mergând la culcare la ora opt seară de seară, și visând să fie împărații lumii. Și au trăit fericiți până la adânci bătrâneți.

Aș da orice pe lumea asta să fi plecat mai curând din pădure. Când procesiunea de greieri cârni a început să iasă în șir indian dintr-un mușuroi înaintea mea pe drum, și am văzut cum toți (ce greșos) se scobesc în nas ori în dinți, și trec țațoși peste frunze cu mâinile-n șolduri, dintr-odată am înțeles că mai bine era să fi renunțat să umblu haihui, și s-o fi rupt la fugă departe de acel loc blestemat.

I wish to God I [had left, have left, leave] the forest sooner. When the procession of snub-nosed crickets started filing out of an anthill ahead of me, and I saw them all (how disgusting) picking their noses or their teeth, and strutting across the leaves with arms akimbo, it dawned upon me that I [would rather, would better, had better] have given up peregrinating, and run away far from that infernal place.

„N-ar fi trebuit să port în viața mea basca aceea de catifea în carouri,” mi-am zis, întrucât mă temeam acum că negustorul ambulant care mi-o vânduse fusese, tot ce se poate, un vrăjitor care, făcându-mă să port această bască, precis că aruncase

“I ought never to have worn that checked velvet beret in my life,” I said to [me, myself, my own], as I feared now that the pedlar who had sold it to me [would, must, might] have been a wizard, who, by making me wear this beret, must have put

Unul dintre greierii negri ca smoala, care se răzlețise de ceilalți, se opri lângă piciorul meu drept, se cățăra pe degetele mele goale (dădusem jos bocancii cu talpă de plută), se scărpină la nas, ca să pricep cât se simte el de stânjenit, apoi îmi făcu cu ochiul, își puse lăbuța – care era foarte, foarte aspră – streășină la ochi, ca să mă vadă mai bine, și, închipuindu-și că nu fuseseră destul de convingătoare toate aceste gesturi, își acoperi amândoi ochii cu două lăbuțe, și se puse pe scâncit:

One of the pitch black crickets, who had strayed away from the others, stopped by my right foot, climbed my bare toes (I had taken off my cork-soled ankle boots), scratched his nose, so that I [might, may, will] realize how embarrassed he [is, were, was], then winked at me, shielded his eyes with his little paw – which was very, very coarse – in order to see me better, and, thinking that all these gestures had not been persuasive enough, bridged two of his paws over his eyes, and started whimpering:

Îi ascultam vocea zumzăită (mai mult ca sigur că-l durea în gât) de mai bine de câteva secunde, când alt greier—unul verde și adus de spate, de data aceasta—ni se alătură. „Ar putea fi fratele burlac al greierului care stă în picioare pe piciorul meu,” mă gândii. Folosindu-mă de un deget cu unghia mușcată până-n carne, îl ridicai, însă el mormăi:

I [had been, have been, was] listening to his droning voice (he must have had a sore throat) for more than a few seconds, when another cricket—a green one, with drooping shoulders this time—joined us. “He might be the bachelor brother of the cricket standing on my foot,” I thought. Using one of my fingers, whose nail had been bitten off to the quick, I picked him up, but he mumbled:

“You [can't, needn't, may not] have taken all that trouble, I was perfectly all right on the ground.”

Mi-am plecat capul, rușinat de intenția mea (urma să-i fi răsucit lăbuțele una câte una), și mi-am trecut degetele celeilalte mâini prin părul meu drept și rar.

I [hanged, hunged, hung] my head, ashamed of my intention (I was to have twisted his paws one by one), and ran the fingers of my other hand through my sleek spare hair.

Mă simțeam de parcă aș fi fost prizonierul unui coșmar. „În mod sigur visez,” hotărâi. „E cu neputință ca scena la care tocmai am asistat să fie adevărată.” Începui să ȝopăi primprejur, dar nesuferiții de greieri se țineau strâns de mine, oricât de tare încercam să-i scutur jos.

I felt as if I [have been, had been, may be] the prisoner of a nightmare. “I [can, must, need] be dreaming,” I decided. “What I have just witnessed [may not, will not, can’t] possibly be true.” I started hopping around, but the bloody crickets held fast to me, no matter how hard I might try to shake them off.

„Oricine ai fi,” izbucniră amândoi, „de acum ești al nostru. O să te prefacem într-o ființă cârnă ca noi, cu cocoașă neagră pe umeri, și cu gușă. Nu se poate să nu-ți fi
